

Last week we were challenged to practice godly living. That is quite a challenge! That kind of living demands distinctive obedient behavior, and even at times, requires you to submit. God doesn't ask us to do that without giving us the power within to accomplish what He asks. We will continue learn submission.

1. Read verses 1-7 of Peter 3. Who is Peter counseling? _____

2. In the very first verse what could be an excuse for a wife to ignore Peter's teaching? _____

3. Peter does not leave out husbands. What 2 motivating reasons are given in verse 7 that would encourage obedience to Peter's advice? _____

4. Verses 8-13 deal with outside relationships in our lives. We are to model these qualities. Define what you think each of the qualities are or what they look like to you.

v.8 live in harmony
v.8 be sympathetic
v. 8 love as brothers
V. do repay evil with evil

5. Peter quotes Psalm 34:12-16 in verses 10-12. How does that scripture give you encouragement? _____

6. The question Peter asks in verse 13 (Who would want to hurt me?) should have a resounding nobody. What is the reality of the world we live in? _____

7. What promise keeps us going when we suffer unjustly? (v.14) _____

We discover God's unfailing love in the verse above.

8. What 2 steps may a believer take in the face of ridicule or threat? (I Peter 3:15-16)

a. _____

b. _____

9. What often stands in our way of following through in the way Peter is suggesting? _____

10. Wisdom from 3 saints who suffered.

Scripture	Person talking	What they say that encourages you
James 4:4	James
II Tim. 3:12	Paul
John 16:33	Jesus

11. The reality is that (v.17) _____ for our _____ for once and _____

12. Christ was our example as He suffered, but how does His position today help us do what He calls us to do? _____
